Sancti et Sanctae Dei, orate pro nobis!

Saint Francis of Paola
April 2

Francesco was born in Paola, Calabria, on March 27, 1416, and died in Tours, France on April 2, 1507. At the age of 13, young Francesco entered a convent; after a year of probation, however, he left the monastery and continued his research for his own vocational journey. Finally, he chose the life of a hermit and retired to Paola, in a territory owned by his family. Here he devoted himself to contemplation and mortification, arousing awe and admiration among his fellow citizens. Soon many young people began to flock to his hermitage, eager to place themselves under his spiritual guide, and a small religious community was born. Thanks to the great spiritual charisma of Francesco, more hermitages followed, and finally he founded his own congregation, the Hermits of Saint Francis of Assisi, later called Order of Minims, approved by Pope Sixtus IV in 1474. The rules to which Francesco di Paola obliged his monks were very hard: along with the traditional Franciscan vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, there was a "fourth vow" of abstinence from meat and other animal products, and fasting during Lent. The name "Minims" referred to the Humility which was to be the imprint of the friars' life.

New bulletin announcements and prayer requests must be submitted by noon on Wednesday to be included in the following Sunday bulletin. Send to bulletin@smastl.org. All requests subject to parish priest approval.
