Our Lady of Compassion
April 11

It is recorded that the popularity of a devotion to the compassion of Mary grew substantially during the 12th century. Soon, a feast was established by a synod of Cologne in 1413, which placed the commemoration of the compassion of Mary on the Friday after the Third Sunday of Easter. The focus of this feast was specifically the sorrow and suffering of Our Lady which she endured during the passion and death of Christ. In 1482 the feast was inserted into the Roman Missal as 'Our Lady of Compassion'. Initially the celebration of the feast was limited to certain dioceses or provinces and the dates upon which it was held differed. However, in 1727, the supreme pontiff Benedict XIII, extended the feast to the entire Church and gave the date of the Friday before Palm Sunday.

New bulletin announcements and prayer requests must be submitted by noon on Wednesday to be included in the following Sunday bulletin. Send to bulletin@smastl.org. All requests subject to parish priest approval.
