Saint Gregory the Great

March 12

Gregory (c. 540-604) was born into a prominent family. He studied law and by age 30 was mayor of Rome. He entered the Benedictine monastery, hoping to live a simple life and distributing his wealth to the poor and to monasteries.

Beside being a Doctor of the Church and a well-known homilist, Pope Gregory I is also famous as a liturgist, and as the Bishop of Rome he was responsible for several important developments to the Roman Mass. The first was his revisions to the Roman Canon which he had codified for the entire Roman Rite. He also established a universal calendar of feasts and further defined the liturgical role of priests and deacons. The saintly pope is further credited with establishing the devotion of offering 40 consecutive Masses for the relief of the holy souls in Purgatory—commonly known as "Gregorian Masses".

In the realm of sacred music, Pope Gregory the Great is well-known for having standardized the Roman style of plainchant—thus why his name was bestowed to the Latin form of sacred chant. He also compiled an Antiphony, composed several hymns and even founded the Schola Cantorum for training singers. (SSPX District of the USA)

New bulletin announcements and prayer requests must be submitted by noon on Wednesday to be included in the following Sunday bulletin. Send to bulletin@smastl.org. All requests subject to parish priest approval.
