Sancti et Sanctae Dei, orate pro nobis

June 12
Feast of the Sacred Heart

After many devout souls had venerated the Sacred Heart of Jesus, with sincere devotion, in the solitude of quiet life, as is seen in the lives of Sts. Augustine, Bernard, Bonaventura, Thomas Aquinas, Francis de Sales, Ignatius, Clara, Gertrude, Mechtild, Catharine of Sienna, Theresa, and others, our divine Savior willed that His heart's infinite love should be recognized by all men and be kindled in cold hearts by a new fire of love. For this end He made use of a feeble, obscure instrument, that all the world might know the devotion to His loving heart. This instrument, disregarded by the world, was one who shone before God in all the radiance of the most sublime virtues; the nun Margaret Alacoque of the order of the Visitation of Mary, at Paray, in Burgundy. In the year 1675, whilst she was one day in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament; our Lord appeared to her, and pointing to His heart which He showed to her, surrounded with flames, surmounted by the cross, encircled with a crown of thorns, and pierced with a gaping wound, He said to her: "Behold this heart, which has loved mankind so much, and which receives only ingratitude and coldness in return for its love. My desire is that you should make reparation to my heart for this ingratitude and induce others also to make reparation."

Our Lord then designated the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi as the special day for this duty.

New bulletin announcements and prayer requests must be submitted by noon on Wednesday to be included in the following Sunday bulletin. Send to bulletin@smastl.org. All requests subject to parish priest approval.

 Please continue to pray the below prayer for them as requested by the Superior General:

Almighty and Eternal God, Who willest that all men should come to salvation and to the knowledge of the truth, Thou Whose Spirit sanctifieth and governeth the whole Body of the Church, we humbly beseech Thee, through the intercession of Our Lady Mediatrix of All Graces, to provide for the needs of Thy Church by pouring out upon Thy elect the abundance of Thy grace. May there shine forth in them the steadfastness of faith, the purity of charity, and the sincerity of peace. May their speech and their preaching rest, not upon the persuasive language of human wisdom, but upon the Spirit and the power of God. Tireless in external labour, may they preserve within themselves the fervour of the Spirit; may they hate pride, may they love humility and truth, never betraying it under the pressure of praise or of fear. May they not make of darkness light, nor of light darkness; may they not call good evil, nor evil good. May they be at the service of the wise as of the foolish, of the learned as of the ignorant, that they may gather the fruit of the progress of all. Multiply upon them Thy blessing and Thy grace, so that, filled with godliness by Thy gift, they may at all times fruitfully implore Thy divine mercy. Through Our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen. R. Saint Pius X. V. Pray for us.
